

Faith in Film

Faith in Film is a small group ministry here at Mountain View United Methodist Church. We meet on the first Wednesday of the month at 6:00 p.m. and gather at the IHOP to share a meal or just a beverage. Having watched a specified film beforehand, we spend some time in discussion and study around the themes and faith-related issues raised by the film. Some books in our recommended, but not necessary, reading list are:

The Religion and Film Reader

Jolyon Mitchell (Editor), S. Brent Plate (Editor)

Reel Spirituality: Theology and Film in Dialogue (Engaging Culture)

Robert K. Johnston (Author)

Screening The Sacred: Religion, Myth, And Ideology In Popular American Film

Joel Martin (Author), Conrad E. Ostwalt Jr. (Editor)

Film as Religion: Myths, Morals, and Rituals

John C. Lyden (Author)

Joining a Faith In Film discussion group is easy, just let Pastor Brian Kroeger know you would like to attend so we have a head count for the IHOP and then show up. If you have not seen the film, no worries come listen to the discussion, you might have something to add having seen a similar film or read something like it in a book. For more information or to join us in discussion contact Pastor Brian Kroeger at bkroeger@iliff.edu
